

Welcome

Health Training Solutions is an initiative to improve the skills, and support the careers of health support staff across all medical, specialist, hospital, community and allied health sectors.

The Courses & Careers section outlines a range of programs that provide practice managers, health administrators, medical receptionists and other health support staff with the opportunity to upgrade their skills to meet the needs of medical, specialist & allied health practitioners and their patients, and deal with issues encountered in modern, busy medical environments.